NEW YORK WANTS BANK TO OVERREACH OTHERS

By Associated Press.

New York City, January 5.—Creation of a regional reserve bank of commanding importance in New York is urged in the first hearing held here today by the temporary commission from Washington. The hearing was conducted by Secretary McAdoo and Secretary Houston. A number of New York's leading bankers appeared. The opinion was expressed by many of the witnesses that in order to create a regional reserve bank which could maintain its position in the financial center of America and not be overshadowed by the huge resources of the clearing house banks and outside institutions, it would be necessary to include practically the whole of the northeast in one region. In the opinion of Charles A. Conant, financial expert, the entire territory northeast of the Potomac river including Pennsylvania should be embraced in the district.

Washington, D. C., January 5.—Immediate investigation of the charge that Harry Ratliff, superintendent of Federal Forest Reserves at Steamboat Springs, Colo., led a mob that took strikers out of jail and deported them was demanded today by Representative Keating of Colorado. Keating demands that if the charges are sustained, Ratliff be removed. Telegrams received by Representative Keating and other members of the Colorado delegation regarding the deportation of Mother Jones and others active in the coal strike will be submitted to Congress in support of the pleas for a thorough congressional investigation into all phases of the strike.

MAYOR TEARS UP RAILROAD

By Associated Press.

Memphis, Tenn., January 5.—Heading a large force of workmen, Mayor E. H. Cramp and Thomas Dies, commissioner of public utilities, today tore up the railroad track at the grade crossing where five persons were killed and several injured last night when a freight train on the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis railroad and a street car collided. The freight train was operating on a track that city officials had ordered removed a few days ago. The railroad authorities had made no move to comply with the order and the mayor's action resulted.

According to witnesses there were no lights on the rear of the freight train and no switchman at the crossing.

'HEADLESS HORSEMAN' TERRORIZES TARRYTOWN.

Tarrytown, N. Y., Jan. 5.—William Bailey, an employee of John D. Rockefeller, after reading about Irving's headless horseman, tried to duplicate the well-known story about 2 o'clock a. m. Astride the horse and with his head down in the collar of his coat he rode through the village streets, terrorizing the people at that hour. The police saw him and gave chase. Bailey spurred his horse on and as it turned into Beekman avenue it stumbled on the brick pavement and fell. Bailey was badly hurt and is now in the hospital with a dislocated hip and badly cut head.

CREW OF 22 PERISH WITH TANK VESSEL

By Associated Press.

New York, Jan. 5.—The tank line steamer which went to the bottom off Sandy Hook yesterday, was the Oklahoma, and 22 of the crew perished, while eight were saved. This information was received by wireless about nine o'clock this morning.

Although several vessels were standing by to aid the distressed Oklahoma, the Bavarian, a tank vessel of the Hamburg-American Line, bound from Philadelphia to Boston, was the only vessel able to render assistance. She reported by wireless today that she was able to rescue the captain, Alfred Gunter, and seven others. No mention was made of the remainder of the crew of thirty.

The Oklahoma was owned by the G. M. Guffey Petroleum Co., and was of 2795 tons net, and 419 feet long. She left port Saturday.

A report reached Sandy Hook late this morning that the Bavarian had on board a crew rescued from a vessel. The message did not make clear whether the vessel had the entire crew, or eight.

HERMAN AGAIN BASE BALL HEAD

Cincinnati, Ohio, January 5.—August Herrmann, of Cincinnati, was re-elected chairman of the National Baseball Commission here today and John Bruce of Cincinnati and St. Louis was again chosen as secretary of the body. In his annual report President Herrmann dwelt at some length on the activity of the new Federal league.

GOVERNMENT REJECTS UNORGANIZED MILITIA

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 5.—A clean issue has been made between the War Department and the National Guard Association of the United States, upon the point of organization of the militia forces of the country.

By direction of Secretary Garrison, Major General Wood, chief of staff, issued circular No. 13, announcing the decision of Judge Crowder, that the militia must conform with the organization to the standard of the Regular Army, else they will be deprived of all federal financial support.

When the Dick militia act became effective in 1908, a period of five years was allowed for the reorganization to conform with the regular standards. In most states actual results were secured in the improved training of militia, and the federal equipment of the men.

In many states the important requirements were ignored. One of the important requirements was that the state should be organized into brigades and divisions.

WILL TRY TO END STRIKE

By Associated Press.

Calumet, Mich., January 5.—Facilitating another investigation of the strike situation, this time at the hands of the Governor of the state, company managers and the Western Federation of Miners leaders today prepared to open up every avenue which the state executive may desire to explore. At the same time both sides to the controversy were dubious as to the ability of Governor Ferris and State Labor Commissioner Cunningham to find any lasting solution of the trouble. Some union sources said that the time in which he could have accomplished much toward the settlement of the strike had passed long ago.

Calumet, Mich., Jan. 5.—Interest in the copper mine strike in the northern Peninsula, today centered around the expected arrival of Gov. W. A. Ferris, who will endeavor to bring about a settlement of the strike called by the Western Federation of Miners.

His arrival will be within a few hours of the time John Densmore, solicitor for the department of labor, departed for Washington, after his failure to bring about a settlement of the controversy.

SYMPATHY STRIKE TO BE CONSIDERED

By Associated Press.

Chicago, Jan. 5.—A meeting of the executive committee of the American Federation of Labor, at Washington, at which the strike in Michigan will be considered, will be called by Samuel Gompers, president of the organization.

This was learned during an interview with Chas. H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners. Moyer was asked concerning the rumors that a nation-wide strike would be called in sympathy with the Michigan strikers, and he said: "Any such demands must be made on the American Federation of Labor. If such a thing is considered, it will be considered by that body."

Moyer will leave the hospital this afternoon, and will remain in his hotel for a week, where he has been ordered to rest.

NOT ADVISED

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., January 5.—Vice-president O'Connell and Secretary Morrison, the only officials of the American Federation of Labor here today, both profess to know nothing of a proposed meeting of the Executive Council to act on the copper strike situation. Vice-President O'Connell said he did not credit the report of a proposal for a general strike

CAR MEN OPPOSE NATIONAL STRIKE

By Associated Press.

Detroit, Mich., January 5.—W. D. Mahan, of Detroit, president of the Union Street Car and Electric Street Car Employees of America, believes it will not be necessary to seriously consider the advisability of calling a nation-wide labor strike in sympathy with the Calumet miners.

"I am one of those who think the governor of Michigan will be able to bring the warring parties together," said Mahan today. "A regular meeting of the Executive Committee of the American Federation of Labor will be held in Washington, January 19th. Whether discussions of a nation-wide strike will come up at that meeting I do not know, but there are several reasons why such a course seems to me improbable. Now that the Governor has gone to Calumet, I believe the strike will soon be settled. There is nothing for us to do now but to await the result of the Governor's visit." Mahan was chairman of the recent Labor Strike conference at Lansing.

JUDGE HOLT QUITS OFFICE

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., January 5.—The resignation of Judge George Holt, as Federal District Judge of the Southern District of New York was received today at the White House to take effect January 15th. Judge Holt said he desired to return to the practice of law. He was appointed by President Roosevelt.

GRIEVING ACTRESS IS FOUND DEAD

CUT DOWN BY RAKING FIRE

Rebels Attempt to Take Ojinaga
From the North.

RENEWATTACK FROM THE WEST

Several Hundred Casualties Attend the Assaults, the Fiercest of the Ojinaga Campaign—Wounded Constitutionalists Under Care of the American Red Cross—Federal General Martinez Among the Injured.

Presidio, Tex., Jan. 5.—More than 6,000 rebels, the combined forces under General Ortega and General Rodriguez, renewed the attack on Ojinaga and stormed the town from the west. The fight from the new position seems to have given the rebels a slight advantage and they rapidly advanced on the garrison.

Early in the day the rebels attempted to take the garrison from the north, but this proved disastrous to them, and many of their troops were mowed down from the terrible resistance put up by the federals.

Retreating from the arroyo, a mile and a half from the garrison, the rebels under the command of Ortega moved to the Conchos river and there joined the forces of Lon Rodriguez and resumed their attack.

The rifle and cannon fire of the rebels has been very effective and more than 70 of the government forces are said to have been killed and 150 wounded. The federals believe that the rebel losses are equally as heavy, and reports have been received in the town indicating an enormous death list.

Two thousand federal cavalry left Ojinaga at dusk, headed for the arroyo a mile and a half from the city, and will make an effort to flank Ortega's section of the attacking army near the Conchos river. This step was taken when the assault from the combined rebel force became so fierce that the rebels began to drive in the federals.

Fifteen wounded Constitutionalists crossed to the American side and were taken in charge by the Red Cross nurses. Federal Brigadier General Martinez was seriously wounded and is now on his way to Marfa, having crossed to the American side for medical treatment.

Both the rebel and federal armies have sufficient food and ammunition, and if the government forces stand by their guns it will be days before the rebels will be able to capture Ojinaga, if at all.

Major Luis Terrazas, third grandson of General Luis Terrazas, millionaire land baron of Chihuahua, of the federal army at Ojinaga, was shot in the foot. The federal deserts have almost stopped since the men were paid.

The dead so far is estimated at 200 for both sides, with about 300 wounded on both sides, a total of 500 casualties since the fighting opened a week ago. The rebels claim to have 6,000 men and the federals 4,000.

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE GLANDERS KILLS OHIO PROFESSOR

"Taking Things Easy," a complete little musical play with all the trimmings that would be expected in a Broadway production, will be the headline offering at B. F. Keith's, week Jan. 12. The author, Everett S. Ruskay, has perfected an admirable offering in this tabloid musical comedy. Mr. Harry Tighe, the big, good-natured comedian, will be starred in this offering. He will be supported by his capable company of Collegians, including the following well-known young musicians: Ubert Carlton, Frank Ebright, Tom Callahan, Jack Ryan, Florence Rehan, Lorraine Lester, Helen Stewart, and George Clarke.

Julius Tannen, (Chatterbox), the ever popular monologist, will play his annual visit to Columbus where he is a great favorite. Mr. Tannen is a monologist without a peer. He talks rapidly and puts his jokes over with lightning-like rapidity. He puts to route the old saying that "talk is cheap," for he is one of the highest salaried men in vaudeville.

Hilda Thomas and Lou Hall will appear in their entertaining sketch, "The Substitute," in which Miss Thomas plays the role of a maid, posing as an actress, and Mr. Hall appears as a country boy playing the part of a musical professor. Complications are many and varied.

Percy Bronson and Winnie Baldwin, in "Pickings from Song and Dance Land," will offer "some pickings" for this is vaudeville's most clever team. They make several complete costume changes.

The Alexander Brothers, the world's greatest ball-bouncers will prove their ability to bounce a half a score of balls at one time.

The Meredith Sisters will present "Girls of Other Nations," in which they will wear the latest "styles" from China, Arabia, The South, Turkey, India and other places.

Marena and Dalton, the agile athletes who have appeared in every city in Europe, will also grace the bill. Other acts will be added.

SUNDAY PICTURES.

Each Sunday afternoon and night, B. F. Keith's theater will offer the very best picture show in Columbus. There will always be at least two Special Feature, double reel pictures, together with the usual single reel films and the Timely Topic Views, now so popular.

The Sunday prices are but five and ten cents. The theater offers a splendid diversion for Sunday visitors to Columbus.

BELVEDERE IS IN GRIP OF ICE

ATTRACTIOMS AT THE HARTMAN THEATRE

Week of January 12.

The sensation of the hour in amusement circles is George Kleine's production of the Cines photo drama spectacle, "Antony and Cleopatra". Nothing like it has been seen in the world and the prices paid for exclusive rights by the different European impresarios have been astounding. The subjects afforded the Cines Company greater scope dramatically and pictorially than their production of "Quo Vadis" and they have taken ample advantage of it. The photo drama is arranged in eight parts and three acts, each one of which is a dramatic revelation. Signor Antony Novellis in the Marc Antony and Signora Giovanna Terribil Gonzales is the Cleopatra. They are ably supported by a brilliant cast, many of whom will be recognized as having played in "Quo Vadis". For spectacular magnificence this production has never been approached. The engagement at the Hartman theatre, Columbus, will be Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, January 11, 12, 13 and 14, with daily matinees.

The Progressives Meet

That meeting of the Progressives at Columbus last Saturday was a remarkable gathering in more respects than one.

It is remarkable in the first place that so many men from far and near over Ohio, should gather at Columbus for a conference when the prospects for political success, measured by the old time yard stick of offices and patronage, are not particularly bright.

The large number attending the meeting and the enthusiasm shown at the threshold of a campaign which will not be national in extent, goes far to disprove the claim that the large progressive vote in Ohio in 1912 was wholly a Roosevelt vote. It indicates that the greater number of the Progressives who voted in 1912 for Colonel Roosevelt did so on principle and that they regard those principles as still existing and are content to wait for place and power until the principles they represent are triumphant.

The decided stand which the "convention", if such it may be called, assumed against amalgamation with their old comrades in the Republican party on any terms except that of complete surrender by the Republicans, indicates that the rosy dreams of the old party leaders, that the Progressives were coming back into the old camp, have not yet come true.

The Columbus gathering, in numbers attending, enthusiasm shown and resolutions adopted, cannot fail to convince observing people that the Progressive party, in Ohio at least, is satisfied with the showing made in 1912, pleased with its recognition as a political party and has very decided hopes of sending Hon. A. L. Garfield to the United States Senate.

Political leaders in both the old parties have begun to realize that the Progressives are a real live political party and will, unless conditions change, have to be reckoned with in the campaign next fall.

The success of the Columbus gathering has caused the enthusiasm of the Progressives to blaze up again with redoubled vigor and has given the old line party leaders and voters food for serious thought.

Care in Appointments

The success or failure of officials in discharging the trust which the voters have imposed upon them is very often attributable to their appointees.

Too frequently men elected to public office look upon appointments as favors to be bestowed on personal or political friends, failing entirely to take into account either the ability or the public standing of the appointee named.

At the beginning of public service, officials who have not yet learned the importance of choosing a proper corps of assistants, often sign the edict which means their retirement to private life and dooms them to a term of unappreciated public service by choosing incompetent or unpopular assistants.

Too late public officials learn that heads of departments work largely through subordinates, and if the subordinate chosen is not in public favor or is incompetent no matter how honest and energetic the chief may be, censure will certainly come.

Public officials are known and praised or condemned by the acts of those whom they choose to assist them.

The will of the public should be obeyed by officials in the matter of appointments, just as scrupulously as in other matters and the officials who fly in the face of public demand in the matter of appointments, can no more hope to be successful than can the man who will fully violate the oath of office.

Appointments to positions of public trust, no matter how modest that trust may be, no matter how inconsequential the duties to be performed are, are not the private property of him who has been elevated to office to be dispensed by him to suit his personal desires. The man who fails to realize that fact is doomed to have his dream of success shattered.

The public has a vested interest in public places to be filled by appointment and will resent any failure to recognize that interest and register its vigorous objection to any attempt to lodge in a public place by appointment, any man whom the public has repudiated.

Filipinos Not Ready For Independence

By ARTHUR F. ODLIN, Formerly Judge of the Court of First Instance
Philippine Islands

I AM a friend of the Filipino people, with whom I was closely associated for almost six years.

For these masses I have profound sympathy united with a deep admiration for their patient struggling and a firm confidence in their future upliftment, always provided that the United States government will not ABANDON THEM TO THE SMALL GROUP OF "POLITICOS" who are doing all the shouting for independence.

I CONSIDER IT UNWISE AND UNSAFE TO ATTEMPT TO CONFER REPRESENTATIVE GOVERNMENT UPON ANY PEOPLE—WHITE, BLACK OR BROWN—UNTIL A DECENT PERCENTAGE OF THEM ARE SUFFICIENTLY EDUCATED TO KNOW WHAT GOVERNMENT MEANS, WHAT REPRESENTATION MEANS AND ARE THEREFORE COMPETENT TO HANDLE THE GIFT WHEN CONFERRED.

Poetry For Today

OLD YEAR MEMORIES.

Let us forget the things that vexed and tried us,
The worrying things that caused our souls to fret;
The hopes that, cherished long, were still denied us.
Let us forget.

Let us forget the little slights that pained us,
The greater wrongs that rankle sometimes yet;
The pride with which some lofty one disdained us.
Let us forget.

Let us forget our brother's faults and failings,
They yielded to temptations that beset;
That he perchance, though grief be unavailing.
Cannot forget.

But blessings manifold, past all deserving,
Kind words and helpful deeds, a countless throng;
The faults o'ercome, rectitude unswerving.
Let us remember long.

The sacrifice of love, the generous giving
When friends were few, the hand-clasp warm and strong;
The fragrance of each life of holy living.
Let us remember long.

Whatever things were good and true and gracious,
Whate'er of right has triumphed over wrong;
What love of God or man has rendered.
Let us remember long.

So, pondering well the lessons it has taught us,
We tenderly may bid the year "good-by;"
Holding in memory the good it brought us.
Letting the evil die.

BILL WITHDRAWS
RADIIUM LANDS

Washington, Jan. 5.—A bill reserving to the United States public lands found to contain radium-bearing ores has been prepared and will be presented Jan. 12 by Representative Ferris of Oklahoma, chairman of the house committee on public lands. The bill authorizes the secretary of the interior to make surveys and withdraw such lands as are found to contain radium. It further provides that for a nominal sum radium may be removed from public lands for curative and experimental purposes.

Mr. Ferris' bill is intended to carry out a recommendation recently made by Secretary Lane following reports that radium has been used with good effect as a remedy for cancer.

RESOLUTIONS OF THE PROGRESSIVES

Columbus, Jan. 5.—Ohio Progressives in conference here did not nominate a state ticket, suggest any candidate for state offices or start any boom. They went on record, however, as favoring nation-wide prohibition, woman's suffrage and local government instead of appointive commissions. They oppose amalgamation with either of the old parties and decided to have a ticket in every county and district in the state and to nominate a full state ticket. The Progressives also adopted resolutions favoring local government instead of appointive commissions; recognizing the need of better roads and pledging support to highway improvements; declaring for use of all monies received from the sale of vehicle tags or licenses in road improvements; declaring in favor of raising the personal property exemption from $100 to $500; opposing party nominations for judicial offices, and demanding a simplification of legal procedure.

For those unfortunately constituted persons it is not best to ask them to forgive. They have not grace or sweetness of disposition enough for that. If they can be made to forget somewhat of the injury, to busy themselves with good works and remember no more the offenses against them, they will find themselves "getting even" in the only practical and satisfactory way. After all, it is only the mean-spirited and petty-minded element of humanity that refuses to forget. To hold a grudge is the attribute of a small mind.—Dayton News.

And that is mighty good advice for everybody. Some people make it a principle of life to remember all the wrongs that have been committed against them. Someway they feel that they are not true to themselves if they fail to resent an injury. There are some people who positively feel insulted if one suggests to them that they should forget.

In such a mood it would be easy for a man to feel that he owed a just grudge against society and that any crime he felt like committing would be no more than society deserves.

He does not stop to think that this expression of bitterness is bound to react upon him. The best way, indeed, to get even with those who may have treated him unjustly is to forget his wrongs.

The Jeffersonville pike is one of the most used in the county, and connects Washington with the second largest town in the county. Rich farm lands are found along the road most of the distance, and many splendid farm homes are located near the pike. Not only is the road one of the most used, but it is one of the hardest to keep in repair, and the petitioners earnestly hope that the improvement will be made as petitioned for, believing it will have a tendency to increase the value of their lands more than the tax they will be required to pay, and that they will then have a road that will never become muddy, and which will make hauling much easier, as well as afford a smooth path for automobiles, a number of which are owned by petitioners.

HORSE BREAKS LOOSE FROM RIG

Mrs. Vernon Kneisley and little child and Mr. James Kneisley, of this city, figured in a runaway accident which occurred on the Waterloo pike near Oak Grove, Saturday evening.

The horse driven by Mrs. Kneisley became frightened and lunged forward, snapping one tug. This caused the animal to renew its efforts to break loose from the buggy, and after running a quarter of a mile it kicked itself free from the rig, leaving the buggy standing in the ditch, and running back home.

Mrs. Kneisley had one hand very painfully cut and bruised where it was drawn through the storm front while she pluckily held to the reins. Mr. Kneisley and the child both escaped injury.

"BLUE SKY" INSPECTOR IS ON THE GROUND

Mr. W. H. Tomlinson, of Dayton, an inspector under the "Blue Sky Law" of Ohio, is spending a few days in this city in conference with those of our citizens who are now required to be licensed.

Under the law regulating the sale of "securities" of any kind and lands in other states or countries, all persons or concerns so engaged are required to be licensed, and the penalty for doing business without a license is severe. The law has been in effect only a short time and the department at Columbus is rapidly bringing it into working force in all parts of the state. Mr. Tomlinson is making a clean sweep as far as possible, and when he leaves he will have personally notified every security and foreign land dealer in the county who has not already applied for a license.

Mrs. Kneisley had one hand very painfully cut and bruised where it was drawn through the storm front while she pluckily held to the reins. Mr. Kneisley and the child both escaped injury.

Dr. Horace L. Brittain, director of the Ohio School Survey and member of the Research league, of New York City, who is to address teachers and others at the High school in this city Friday afternoon of this week, was jeered by farmers while discussing Ohio's proposed school survey law at a mass meeting held at Mansfield Saturday.

Several others who accompanied Dr. Brittain were also interrupted, and it is claimed that a local speaker first explained the plan, of which Brittain is the originator, and in doing so mistated it. When the other speakers attempted to explain it properly, they were interrupted.

Not only did the farmers jeer the speakers, but they introduced resolutions belittling the plan offered. Hon. John F. Kramer was unable to handle the situation for the state employees.

One of the prettiest parties of the holiday season was given by Mrs. Ed Dice Saturday afternoon in honor of the 11th birthday of her little son, James. Eighteen jolly little boys spent the happiest of afternoons in merry games and many original and entertaining contests in which David Craig, Robert Shank, Samuel Nelson, Frank Hamilton, Ray Snyder and Harold Rodecker won the prizes.

The long table was exceedingly pretty, with beautiful floral basket as centerpiece, and birthday cake decked with eleven wax tapers.

A delicious two-course luncheon was thoroughly enjoyed by the children.

The favors were tiny stockings filled with pop corn and candy.

The young host was showered with beautiful gifts and good wishes by his little friends.

Mrs. Dice was assisted by Mrs. M. B. Shank and Mrs. Grant DeWitt.

Miss Ruth Reid, the attractive young daughter of Hon. and Mrs. C. A. Reid, gave a very beautiful six o'clock dinner Saturday evening, entertaining the members of the mandoline and guitar club.

table, and the place cards were dainty little mandolins, on which were painted girls' heads.

An elaborate four course menu was served.

LITTLE STORIES ABOUT OHIO

By CHARLES E. CHIDESTER

OHIO ONCE SOURCE OF VENISON SUPPLY FOR SOUTHERN MARKETS

A little more than 100 years ago Ohio was supplying southern markets with venison steaks.

David Lowry, who came to Ohio in 1795, navigated the first flat boat that floated the Great Miami river, south.

In that year Lowry took his craft to New Orleans laden with 500 venison hams, and a quantity of pickled pork and bacon.

Lowry and a neighbor, Jonathan Donnell, is one season killed 17 bears, and during his residence in Clark county, killed nearly 1,000 deer. He once shot a she-bear and two cubs in less than three minutes—a record in the days of the slow-loading flintlock muskets.

Lowry and Donnell established the first settlement in what is now Clark county, near where now stands the city of Springfield. He assisted in laying out the first road from Dayton to Springfield, through what was then a heavily wooded wilderness. Buffalo and elk abounded the prairies northeast of the present city of Springfield.

Horseflesh served as the medium of exchange for part of the cost of building the first church in Springfield in 1811. Griffith Foss gave a horse valued at $10 to help pay for hewing logs. All of the settlers assisted one another in building cabins. Forty men assembled from a radius of 10 miles helped Foss erect his buildings. When Isaac Zaring, another pioneer, erected his dwelling, men came from a distance of 40 miles.

The first hotel was opened in Springfield by Foss in 1801. Four days were required to travel 42 miles from Franklinton. Alarm lest the Indians attack, caused settlers to transform the Foss tavern into a fort.

The man's trunk that an aviator found pounding on the beach is all that is left of Jewel. It is the paper vest that the aviator wore that seems to identify the body almost beyond doubt. What happened to Jewel no one will ever know.

SUMMER RESORT SWALLOWED BY SEA

Body of Miss Jessie McCann Washed Ashore.

DISCOVERED BY A WATCHMAN

Coroner's Autopsy Discloses the Fact That the Young Woman Had Not Been the Victim of Violence of Any Kind—Police Believe It a Case of Suicide, but Girl's Family Say Death Was an Accident.

New York, Jan. 5.—The body of Miss Jessie Evelyn McCann has been found. The high waves washed it high on the shore at Coney Island, at a point not more than 10 feet from where she was last seen alive on Dec. 4. The identification is absolute. Although the body is in such shape that it did not aid the identification, three pieces of jewelry, the shoes and almost all the clothing that was left are those worn by the young social worker when she disappeared a month ago, according to her brother, father and mother and sister.

Coroner's Physician Reichers made an autopsy. He said that death was due to drowning and that there were no signs of Miss McCann having been the victim of violence in any form.

He also said that the autopsy proved that there were no physical reasons evidenced after death which would have caused her nervous condition or which would have caused her to commit suicide. The police believe that Miss McCann did commit suicide, although the family said they believe it was an accident. The body was discovered by George Neusse, a watchman.

Pass Christian, Miss., Jan. 5.—Tentative plans for President Wilson's trip to New Orleans tomorrow have been abandoned. For the next three days the president will rest. Golf in the morning and motor rides in the afternoon are on the program. So far as the Mexican situation is concerned, it is transferred to Washington. John Lind was instructed to report his arrival at Vera Cruz to the state department, and the president will have nothing more to say about Mexico until his return to the capital.

After Wednesday work will replace play. The president will have drafted the complete text of his promised message to congress on the trust question before he leaves here. He will also have given much thought to the possible membership of the federal reserve board, but it is stated authoritatively that there will be no definite selections made until after he returns to Washington and confers with Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo.

Borah Scores Use of Martial Law
In West Virginia Strike.

MEN PUNISHED EXCESSIVELY

Senator Declares That the Military, Under the Direction of the Governor, Superseded All Constitutional Courts and Imposed Sentences Not Authorized by Any Standing Laws. Submits Statement of Fact.

Washington, Jan. 5.—A severe arraignment of the authorities who administered martial law in West Virginia from September, 1912, to June, 1913, when the Cabin Creek and Paint Creek coal mine strike troubles were in progress, is contained in a subcommittee report made public by Senator Borah, a member of the senate committee that conducted an investigation into all phases of the West Virginia disturbances.

Senator Borah's statement holds that the military authorities, acting under the direction of the governor, superseded all constitutional courts in West Virginia, imposed sentences not authorized by any standing laws, and took over all the duties of the civil courts of the district; and that at the time such martial law was being enforced there was no evidence that the civil courts had been intimidated, or that they would have failed to perform their duties faithfully.

The complete report of the investigating committee has not yet been prepared. Each member of the committee, which included Senators Swanson, Shields, Martine, Borah and Kenyon, was charged with the preparation of a portion of the report.

After briefly reviewing the incidents of the establishment of martial law and its maintenance in the Cabin Creek and Paint Creek districts for nearly a year, Senator Borah's statement says:

"That during the reign of martial law a number of individuals were arrested, tried and convicted and sentenced and punished for offenses alleged to have been committed by them.

"That these parties were arrested upon orders issued by the military authorities, and not by virtue of any warrant issued by the civil authorities or from the established courts of the state, and were put upon their trial, without the finding of any indictment by the grand jury, before a courtmartial created by the order of the commander-in-chief and composed of individuals selected by him.

"That the charges made against these parties thus put upon their trial were in the nature of specifications drawn up and presented by these military authorities, and upon these they were put upon their trial before said courtmartial, without a jury.

"That at the time these arrests were made and the trials and convictions had the civil courts were open, holding their terms as usual, disposing of cases and dispensing justice in the usual and ordinary manner.

"That in some instances arrests were made outside the military zone and at a time when martial law did not prevail, and when such arrests were made the parties were turned over by the civil authorities to the military authorities for detention, trial and punishment.

"That in rendering judgment and assessing punishment the parties were punished by terms of imprisonment unknown to the statutes in excess of the punishment provided for such offenses under the laws of that state."

WATERS POUNDING

Atlantic City, Jan. 5.—The north-easter that has been sweeping this section of the coast for 36 hours was turned on the lower end of Absecon island. A half-mile stretch of beach that jutted out into Little Egg harbor is buried under tons of water and sandhills, and small buildings disappeared. The gales swept in the highest tide recorded in 15 years to flood the streets of Longport and Margate City. The total loss on the island is placed at about $100,000.

MOTHER JONES IS DEPORTED

Denver, Colo., Jan. 5.—Mother Jones was forcibly deported from the coal strike district after her arrival at Trinidad from El Paso. On orders of General Chase, a detachment met her at the station, took her from a Santa Fe train, kept her under surveillance until a Colorado & Southern train for Denver arrived, and then put her aboard that. She had meant to make a speech at a mass meeting of strikers at Walsenburg.

TO TAKE PART IN POULTRY SHOW

Ohio State University will take an active part in the Ohio State Poultry Show which will be held in Columbus at the Hartman Coliseum during the week of January 29. Students in the winter course in poultry husbandry will set up the coops for the entire show; the poultry department of the University will hold an educational exhibit and conduct a poultry institute each day during the week; demonstrations will be given on killing, picking, dressing and caponizing poultry and the washing of birds for the show room.

The amateur will be initiated into all the secrets connected with the preparation of poultry for exhibition.

An effort is being made to secure the cooperation of all other state institutions that have courses in poultry industry. Prof. F. S. Jacoby, who is president of the Ohio State Poultry Show Association, is desirous of securing the attendance of all farmers interested in raising pure bred poultry. Further particulars may be had by addressing him at Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio.

DON'T TRUST CALOMEL

Thousands Experience Bad After Effects From This Dangerous Drug.

A Safe Vegetable Substitute is Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets for the Liver.

Dr. F. M. Edwards, a prominent physician of Ohio, has discovered a laxative and liver toner in a combination of vegetable materials mixed with olive oil, which is in effect almost exactly like calomel, except that there are none of the bad after effects.

Dr. Edwards has long been a foe of calomel, though he recognized its value along with its dangers.

His distrust of the uncertain drug eventually started him, years ago, towards experiments with the view of discovering a substitute, and he has been for several years in possession of the long-sought-for combination, which is in the shape of a little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablet.

The results of 7 years' experience and practice are embodied in these marvelous little tablets.

They are called Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. And their effect on the liver has been the means of relief to many of Dr. Edwards' regular patients as well as to thousands of others who have suffered and were afraid of calomel.

There is no necessity, when you take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, by following them up with nasty, sickening, gripping salts, or castor oil, as you do after taking calomel. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists. The Olive Tablet Com-

TO HEAR DEMANDS OF BALL PLAYERS

New York, Jan. 5.—Organized and outlaw baseball men are deeply interested in the all-important conference between the national commission and the players' fraternity in Cincinnati tomorrow.

Governor John K. Tener, president of the National league; Ban Johnson, president of the American league, and Garry Herrmann, president of the Cincinnati club, will sit as members of the commission. Before the players' demands are heard the commission will re-elect Herrmann president for 1914. Incidentally Governor Tener will hear his first baseball case.

The fraternity will be represented by David L. Fultz, Jake Daubert and Edward Reulbach of the Brooklyns; Ray Collins of the Red Sox, Jack Miller for the St. Louis Cardinals and John Henry of the Washingtons. Twenty requests for the adjustment of grievances were filed with the major and minor leagues some time ago, and since then they have been widely discussed. It is predicted that there will be a sharp difference of opinion over the waiver rule.

STATE NOW PROTECTS THE WORKINGMAN

Extending its protection to hundreds of thousands of workers employed in shop, store, mill, mine and almost every vehicle of human endeavor, the workingmen's compulsory compensation law became effective January 1st.

The measure, conceded to be the most far-reaching statute of the generation, makes compensation mandatory for workmen in all classes of regular employment where five or more are regularly employed, and makes it optional where less than five are employed. It extends its operations to practically all of the people who work for the state and its divisions in the multifarious activities that go to make up government.

The compulsory act is the successor of the earlier elective act, passed three years ago, before constitutional groundwork was provided for the erection of the present structure. While legislatures of other states have been enacting compensation laws, none has gone so far as Ohio.

In brief the Ohio law provides that all accidental injuries are to be compensated by payment to the injured worker of a sum not to exceed two-thirds of weekly wage and by payment of not to exceed $3,750 to dependents of those killed, regardless of whether the injury came about through fault of the injured or killed worker. Only injuries purposely self-inflicted are to be excluded.

Employers either contribute to the state insurance fund or secure permission to carry their own insurance, giving at the same time a bond that injuries that the compensation to injured employees will be paid. The plan of the law, as stated by its adherents, is to dismiss from the field of activity two elements.

One is the "personal injury" attorney and the other is the liability insurance company, that is said to have wrong profits from its ability to protect the "master," or employer, from payment of damages to his employees when they were injured through their own or by his own fault. For Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy

"How thankful we are to you for getting a hold of your wonderful Remedy. My wife could not live but had but short time to live if she had not taken your Wonderful Remedy when she did. One more of those paroxysm pains she was having would have killed her without a doubt. Now she is free from all pain, free from heart trouble and free from that disturbing Neuralgia—all the results of five treatments—and the expulsion of five hundred Gall Stones. Now she is able to eat anything she wants and her appetite is good and when taking your treatment she sleeps well all night long. T. A. Neal, Roanoke, Tex."

The above letter should convince you more than anything we could say in favor of Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy. Sufferers should try one dose of this Remedy—one dose should convince them that they can be restored to health. Nearly all Stomach Ailments are caused by the clogging of the intestinal tract with mucus and caseous secretions allowing poisons fluids into the System and otherwise deranging the digestive system. Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy painlessly removes these accumulations without a surgical operation and puts an end to Colic Attacks, Gases in the Stomach and Intestines and all of the usual symptoms of Stomach, Liver and Intestinal Ailments. Ask your druggist about Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy and send for the free booklet on Stomach Ailments and many grateful letters from people who have been restored.

President Attends Church.

Pass Christian, Miss., Jan. 5.—President Wilson attended the First Presbyterian church of Biloxi. The officiating clergyman was Rev. William Meggison. There were only a few persons in the auditorium when the big Whit House car rolled up, but within 15 minutes every seat was crowded. The desire of the president for privacy, however, was respected.

MONSTER DIAMOND BROUGHT TO LIGHT

Diamond dealers in New York have heard with interest that a new big diamond has made its appearance in London. It is a stone of the first water, weighing 178 $\frac{1}{2}$  carats and was found by an English digger named Bowker at Drogoveld, South Africa. He brought the diamond to London but thus far has been unable to dispose of it, dealers declining to purchase on one pretext or another.

The diamond is an amber stone, perfectly clear and resembles the Kohinoor. This last named stone, in its earliest known state weighed 186 $\frac{1}{2}$  carats, but was later cut to 106.

The largest diamond, ever found was the Cullinan diamond, found in the Premier mine in the Transvaal in 1905. It weighed 3025 3-4 carats or 1 1-3 pounds.

The Transvaal government bought this diamond and presented it to King Edward. It was sent to Amsterdam in 1908 and cut into nine large stones and a number of small ones.

The largest weighed 516 $\frac{1}{2}$  carats and 309 3-16 carats. They are the largest brilliants in existence.
